THANK YOU

-to our volunteer counselors and junior counselors who devoted a week out of their summer to our campers at Roanoke Christian Camp!

FROM THE DEAN

Hello Parents, Grandparents, and Guardians,

When I was in middle school I decided that I wanted to be a dean at Roanoke Christian Service Camp. I saw that dream come true 3 years ago. Being Dean of Discovery Week is an honor. I look forward to this week every summer. This week has been a blast. We had 71 campers this year which means 71 smiling faces and 71 souls that we were able to hang out with and present Jesus to. We learned this week that we are to be brave like Esther, and pray like Daniel. We learned the whole story of Esther and Daniel and then at night each group presented a skit about what they had learned. During each meal time we played music and the kids danced and danced. We swam in the pool, slid down a water slide, played in the river, and played lots and lots of Ga-Ga Ball. Thank you for letting me have your kids for a week. I am already excited about next year. For those kids who are moving up and aging out I will miss them. For those who will be with us again next year, I will see you soon!

In Christ's Love,

Danielle Hortelano, Dean
